Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 18, 2018

An interesting bit of trivia is that the first American Thanksgiving was actually celebrated on September 8, 1565 in St. Augustine, Florida. The Native Americans and Spanish settlers held a feast and the Holy Mass was offered.

A second similar "Thanksgiving" celebration occurred on American soil on April 30, 1598 in Texas when Don Juan de Oñate declared a day of Thanksgiving to be commemorated by the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Most Americans, however, immediately associate our Thanksgiving celebration with the Pilgrims and their journey across the Atlantic on the Mayflower in search of a new land and religious freedom. After their perilous journey and with little food and supplies left, the Pilgrims arrived on November 21, 1620 at Plymouth, Massachusetts.

During their first year, the Pilgrims endured many hardships and nearly half of the original 100 settlers died. Fortunately, the native Indians befriended the Pilgrims. Squanto, who had learned English from traders, not only showed the Pilgrims how to grow and grind corn and how to hunt and fish in the new land, he assisted in negotiating a treaty with Chief Massasoit of the Wampanoag Indians.

Gov. William Bradford, remarked that Squanto was "...a special instrument sent of God for their good beyond their expectations." Near the time of the first anniversary of their arrival, Gov. Bradford declared a day of prayer and thanksgiving to God. About 60 pilgrims were joined by 90 Indians for this celebration. The tradition continued and spread throughout the New England colonies, although no official date of celebration was set until later.

Squanto, the beloved hero of Thanksgiving, was a Native American man who mediated between the Puritan Pilgrims and the Native Americans. Squanto had been enslaved by the English but he was freed by Spanish Franciscans. Squanto thus received baptism and became a Catholic. So it was a baptized Catholic Native American who orchestrated what became known as Thanksgiving.

As we celebrate this great American custom this year, we must not forget God. We should pause this Thanksgiving Day and take time to pray, reflect on our lives, and give thanks. Each Catholic should make a real effort to attend Mass and come to the Banquet of our Lord to lift up our hearts in Thanksgiving and to receive Him in the Holy Eucharist. Yes, we give thanks for the gifts of family, Church, and Sacraments. We give thanks for the loved ones who are entrusted to our care and those who care for us. We give thanks for our country which has provided such great opportunities, security, and peace. In all, we give thanks and rejoice in the Lord who has blessed each of us with so much and in so many ways.

RCIA— RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

Classes begin Wednesday,

November 28

Dinner- 5:50 PM

Class- 5:50-7:15 PM

Now that Alpha is almost finished, are you seeking to go deeper in your Christian journey- to learn, grow, and develop your relationship with God? Do you have curiosity or questions about the Catholic Faith? Are you perhaps interested in more fully participating in the Catholic Faith community? If any of these answers is a yes, then please join us for RCIA.

COMMON RCIA QUESTIONS:

- What is RCIA? RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, the process which the unbaptized, as well as baptized Christians of other faith traditions, journey together as a community to explore and discover the truth, beauty, and goodness of the Catholic Faith.
- Who can join? RCIA is open to all.
- What if I'm not sure that I want to become Catholic? There is no pressure, just an invitation to come learn and be a part of our community. This faith journey takes place alongside fellow inquirers, seeking to have fuller understanding, and perhaps participation, in the life of the Church.
- What if I just want to come as a "learner," but I'm already Catholic? You are more than welcome to join us as a learner.
- Childcare? Since Generations of Faith is happening at the same time, the Nursery is available, as well as full catechesis at Generations of Faith for kids in grades K-8 and high school.
- When do the RCIA classes begin? Wednesday, November 28. We then follow the same Wednesday schedule as Generations of Faith.
- Where do we meet? We will meet in the Basement Large Meeting Room.
- Registration: Please email Amy Dyke with your intent to join: amy@cathedralolph.org or stop by the office for a Registration Form.

Other questions? Interested in being part of the team? Interested in being a Sponsor? Please contact Amy Dyke, amy@cathedralolph.org.

Give by Text # 605-206-2878

"God loves a cheerful giver..."

When considering our financial stewardship, we are examining all of the ways that we are using, and could better use, our financial resources for the good of our family, our Church, and our community. We review our spending, our savings, and fiscal responsibilities. Financial stewardship or stewardship of treasure is not limited to our giving to our parish or to our diocese, but involves a prayerful consideration of all our uses of money within our family and beyond.

When trying to determine our level of giving to the Church, some parishioners find the Biblical practice of tithing to be a helpful guide.

In speaking about tithing and what we should give to the Church, we often forget that everything we have already belongs to God. If everyone in the world today were to place God first in our lives, there would be no question about tithing because our hearts would be filled with charity and we would cheerfully give to and support the Church in the best and most generous way possible.
