November 22, 2015

I don't get sick very often, but today (Wednesday) is one of those days. Sinus pain and aching all over. All I want to do is sleep. Whine, whine! Right you are. That is what sickness does for us. It causes us to turn in on ourselves and expect others to pay attention, see what is wrong, and apply the proper medicine even when we do not know what the proper medicine is.

This is not just an accurate description of physical sickness. It is also a pretty accurate description of spiritual sickness. The difference is that often with spiritual sickness it is less easily identified and sometimes even less easily admitted. Yet the same thing happens. I wake up and things are not right. I am in a bad mood or I am bothered by those around me. I feel inadequate and then frustrated. I am easily disappointed and quite often irritable. That is because sin once committed opens us up to a host of effects that flow from that first choice. Remember Adam and Eve in the garden. The fruit they consumed did in fact give them knowledge of good and evil. Along with that they also got pain in child birth, toil against the land, a break down in their relationship, a separation from God, and ultimately death. What appears as an immediate good (the knowledge of good and evil) causes a torrent of effects that destroy their lives. So too with our own sin.

Add to that the compounding of our efforts to cover over the sin, to pretend that all is well; lies built upon lies. We very quickly drown in this quagmire of disunity and, left unchecked, that leads to a lot of misery in life.

Enter the mercy of God. It is a truth that is beyond our wildest expectation that in the midst of this mess, God chooses to love us and CONTINUES to love us. Jesus is the face of God's overwhelming mercy. There are many ways to characterize Jesus' life and message. Pope Francis chooses mercy. In declaring a Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Pope invites us to stare straight into the face of God's love in Jesus. He invites us to renew our experience of God's invitation to love in Jesus. He challenges us to believe it is true and not just for "all people" but especially for ME and for YOU.

Eucharist is the great sacrament of mercy. In this weekly meal we share we remember that God loved us so much that he gave his Son, and Jesus loved us so much that he gave his life. Every Eucharist is an encounter with the mercy of God because every Eucharist brings us into a relationship with Jesus. If we really believed that, nothing and no one would keep us away.

Reconciliation or Confession is also important. Like Eucharist, this sacrament is an encounter with the Risen Lord Jesus. He chooses to be present and proclaim God's great mercy through the priests who are his representatives, but he himself is there. He wants us to come and unburden ourselves because he knows the weight of sin. He knows how it leaves us spiritually sick and how that sickness spills out onto others that we love and care about.

We are invited then in this Jubilee Year of Mercy to renew our desire to celebrate the Eucharist. We are invited to experience the healing and forgiveness God offers us in his Son Jesus through Reconciliation. He waits for us and longs for us to come to him. He rejoices when we do with a joy that is beyond our understanding.

We stand at the edge of this great Jubilee Year of Mercy. December 8 at 5:30 PM we begin the year. December 13 at 10:30 we open the door of God's mercy in Jesus. December 15 we have our first full day of Reconciliation available to all the faithful. Don't let these opportunities pass you by. Do not claim you are too busy or you forgot. Come! God is waiting for you! He wants to shower his mercy on you. Make this year the best year, a year free from spiritual sickness. See you at the door of mercy.

PARISH NEWS

NOVEMBER PERPETUAL HELP COLLECTION

—We are collecting new or gently-used Christmas decorations for Church Response to use in their Christmas Decoration Recycling project. Many of their clients have very few, if any, holiday decorations, and they would like to pass along your donated items to these families to make their Christmas a bit more festive! Cleaning out your Christmas storage boxes will result in a cheerier holiday for many Rapid City families. Please bring your donations to the church, or to the ChurchResponse office at 30 Main St. Call 342-5360 for more information.

NOAH'S ARK DISPLAY—The Cathedral will be sponsoring the Noah's Ark lighting display at Storybook Island this Christmas season. The cost is $400, so if you would like to contribute to help defray the cost, you can write a check to the Cathedral and put Noah's Ark in the memo. Donations can go in the collection or can be sent to the rectory.

THANKSGIVING MASS COLLECTION

—On Thanksgiving we will be taking up a special collection for the Cathedral Pax Fund. The Pax Fund is a fund designed to help those individuals and families in need of financial assistance and food. Please prayerfully reflect on this collection and be generous in responding.

THE RECTORY OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED ON THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26-27, FOR THE THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY.

Church Photo Directory

DIRECTORY UPDATE—

PLEASE NOTE—If you want to order pictures, it takes about two weeks to receive your order. You will need to get your order in no later than December 10 if you want pictures before Christmas.

How long do I have to choose my pose for the directory? You have until February 1, 2016. After that the staff at the photography studio will make the selection. No substitutions will be made.

When will we get our free 8x10 picture? The free 8x10 pictures will be delivered to the church after everyone has chosen their directory poses. We anticipate receiving them in early March. We will make an announcement on how to pick them up once they arrive.

It isn't too late to have your picture taken! You can sign up to have your picture taken on the Cathedral website at www.cathedralolph.org, or by calling the rectory at 342-0507. We will be glad to help you!

Walk-ins are welcome!

The photography has been going very quickly, so you can also stop downstairs during any of the photo sessions to have your picture taken. Sessions are on Saturdays from 4:00-7:00 PM, Sundays from 9:00 AM -2:00 PM and 4:00-7:00 PM, Tuesdays from 5:00-7:00 PM, and Wednesdays from 5:00-7:00 PM.

INFORMATION

Steubenville of the Rockies Deadline to register January 10, 2016

THIRST – June 23 - 26 in Denver, Colorado

The cost per person is $375 – Includes:
travel, lodging, Elitch Gardens,
Steubenville Conference, one T-Shirt, and all meals except three.

REGISTRATION

To register, turn in completed registration form
AND $75 deposit to secure a spot. Then two payments of $150 will be due. Deadline for registration is January 10

(will accept registrations until Conference is sold out).

Please see registration on Cathedral web site:

www.cathedralolph.org

Completed forms with deposit can be turned in to Shari Dahlke in the rectory office.

The deadline will sneak up quickly with the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons, so register now!

Christmas Caroling

The Sixth Grade Confirmation class will be caroling at the High Rise Assisted Living next door to Cathedral. We will visit the adults in the center in their dining room, sing Christmas carols and stay around for hot cocoa and cookies. We will bring cheer to the people next door!

Youth Help Needed

The annual craft fair is Saturday, Dec 5.

The kitchen is run by youth in the parish, so I am in need of youth to sign up! We will serve homemade caramel and cinnamon rolls for breakfast, then chili, sloppy joes and nachos for lunch! I need youth to come all hours while we are open 7 AM-3 PM, to serve and clean up after the event. We need young men and women who know how to run the big dishwasher, people to serve food, friendly people to greet and help customers, and people to clean up.

Contact shari@cathedralolph.org

Small Group Mentors for High School Teens

We need to make sure our youth stay strong in their faith after they are confirmed at Cathedral OLPH.

Many students look at Confirmation as graduation, and their involvement disappears after receiving this sacrament. We need your help to make sure this does not happen.

Did you know that a caring adult mentor, a small group of supportive peers, and encouraging parents who open their homes and offer hospitality is a proven method of raising healthy teenagers?

We are asking parents to help us put together a small group with their teen and his/her friends. They will come together weekly with a adult mentor and talk about our faith in a parent's home, coffee shop, or the church.

Videos are available online for parents to watch and discover what their teen will be discussing.

OFFICE OF BISHOP

DIOCESE OF RAPID CITY

Annual Appeal 2016

"... above all, let your love for one another be intense ..."

November 22, 2015

Grace and Peace to you, Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As I shared with you earlier, this past year has been an amazing year for the Diocese of Rapid City. The Lord Jesus has blessed our diocese in so many ways! The Lord never ceases to amaze me. He will not be outdone in generosity!

For a few moments I invite you to quiet your heart and ponder the amazing things the Lord has done in your life this past year. Where did you experience the intensity of God's love for you, for your family and friends? When we are able to name and to claim God's grace in our lives we are filled with a heart of gratitude, so much that we want to emulate the same type of love for others through our own generosity.

The theme for our 2016 diocesan appeal is ".... above all let your love for one another be intense..." When our love becomes real and we are able to reach out to one another as Christ has reached out to us, God's kingdom becomes more fully alive.

The Annual Diocesan Appeal is an important way for every Catholic family to participate in building God's kingdom in western South Dakota. We are called to be good stewards of the gifts which the Lord has entrusted to us, not to be kept for ourselves but to be used to enrich the kingdom of God. Our love for one another becomes intense when we are willing to make a sacrifice for others.

Many of you have generously responded to this message. I am deeply grateful for your support. You are making a difference. If you have not yet made your pledge of support, I ask you to prayerfully seek the Lord's guidance regarding what he is asking of you in light of this year's appeal.

Please be generous in pledging both your financial support and your prayers for the mission of our great diocese and the 2016 annual appeal. May our love for one another be intense.

Sincerely in the peace and joy of Christ,

+ Robert D. Gruss
