Also, on Thursday, June 6 (7–8:30pm), we begin a new ALPHA AT THE CATHEDRAL (10 weeks). Who in your life is looking for deeper meaning, genuine community, and relationship with God? Who will you invite to join you for RCIA or ALPHA this summer? A family member? Friend? Coworker? Neighbor? With whom will you share the Good News of Jesus Christ in a welcoming and joyful setting?

Dear Cathedral Body of Christ,

It is with heartfelt eternal gratitude that we thank you so very much for the extraordinary outpouring of love and prayers for our daughter and family, experienced through your spiritual bouquet. The beautiful box wrapped with so much care, even tied with a precious ribbon, was chock-full of personal notes offering huge numbers of prayers, Masses, sacrifices, words of encouragement, comfort, solidarity, and shared sorrow. We were stunned and our hearts filled, overflowing with humble gratitude. The thought that the laity will renew the Church, appears to be very true and it's actually happening through the sincere sacrificial prayer and expressions of love such as yours! We are not parishioners at OLPH, and are extremely thankful for Fr. Christensen allowing and promoting this outpouring of love and spiritual assistance at so many Masses. We all know Holy Week is extremely busy for our pastors. Fr. Christensen took the time to drive across town and personally deliver your beautiful gift on Good Friday!! Please know we don't want a single Grace lost and we are working to be as receptive as possible to all the Graces made available to us through your prayers. Your spiritual assistance, love and support is deeply appreciated now, and will be as our daughter and family deal with the consequences of what happened across time. The precious box full of golden words and prayers will be cherished for many years to come. Our daughter keeps the beautiful box in her room. I steal it away from time to time re-reading all that was written. We also would like to thank those who wrote private letters, not even knowing who we are, expressing concern, prayers and solidarity. Your outreach and words lifted us up in a very dark time. Your prayers and continued fidelity to the Church have inspired and encouraged us. We don't want to think about how we would be right now if it weren't for your prayers and love. It was EXTREMELY IMPORTANT for us to KNOW of your prayers. Seeing and reading all the cards is very edifying and powerful. THANK YOU! With profound gratitude we will offer a nine-day Mass novena as a family, in gratitude for all of you, as well as for your intentions, ending on the Feast of the Immaculate Heart in June. God bless everyone involved in this. Though struggles continue, we were lifted up so VERY much! We cherish and appreciate your continued prayers! -The Family That Received the Spiritual Bouquet
