July 8, 2018—Fourteenth Sunday Ordinary Time

Pope Francis, in his most recent apostolic exhortation, Guadete et Exsultate: On the Call to Holiness in Today's World says: "The Lord asks everything of us, and in return he offers us true life, the happiness for which we were created. He wants us to be saints and not to settle for a bland and mediocre existence."

"The Lord asks everything of us...." At first glance, this might sound terribly unreasonable and even impossible. How can He ask everything of me? There are many demands on my time and energy, on my finances. I have to provide for myself and my family. I have obligations at work and in my community. How is it possible to give everything to God?

In these months of summer, as we seek to understand how God could ask everything of us, maybe we can look to baseball and softball for some guidance. The whole team has one main and overarching focus: win the game! To win the game, your team must score more runs than the other team. Each member of your team seeks to do everything to keep the other team from scoring and to help your team to score as many runs as possible.

During the game — and even in preparation for the game — everything I do as a player is aimed at victory. How I warm-up, how I bat, how I run, and how I position myself in the field. I keep my attention on every play, every situation, and I anticipate the next move. Everything I do is focused upon winning the game. My coach and my teammates are asking everything of me—asking for my very best.

So it is in our daily lives. Whatever we do, we do with the aim of serving God. Our aim — each and every day — is eternal life with God. We are called to become saints! (Only saints are in heaven... and heaven is what we have been created for!). Therefore, our work, our schooling, our recreation, our eating, sleeping... every activity has communion with God as its overall aim and goal.

God asks everything of us. This means that God is a part of all I do. I never forget — I remain attentive — throughout each day and during every activity that what I am doing, saying, or thinking is aimed towards the loving service of God.

When we offer God everything, Pope Francis tells us that God, in return, "offers us true life, the happiness for which we were created." This is our aim: eternal life, communion with God, heaven!

God "wants us to be saints and not to settle for a bland and mediocre existence." Let us offer Him everything!

Steubenville of the Rockies 2018-

Among the three buses from the Diocese of R.C., twenty-five of our OLPH students set out in pursuit of Christ. More important than the graces of joy, healing, community or peace, the greatest gift received was the acknowledgement that the pursuit was never theirs, but Christ's seeking them. Thank you for your prayers for the success of our trip. Please continue to pray for our spiritual growth in youth ministry!

LIFE TEEN

Leading Teens Closer to Christ

Cathedral to launch Life Teen & The Edge

Over 2,000 youth leaders from across the United States gathered in Scottsdale, Arizona from June 9-12, 2018 for the annual Catholic Youth Ministry Training Convention. The convention is organized by Life Teen. As a Eucharist-centered movement within the Roman Catholic Church, Life Teen leads teenagers and their families into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. With the Blessed Virgin Mary as an intercessor and guide, Life Teen seeks to unleash the fullness of the Sacramental power present within the young Church.

Laura Hawk — Cathedral Director of Youth Ministry — participated in the annual conference along with Amy Dyke — Cathedral Director of Evangelization — Craig Dyke, Kris and Rachél Cascarelli, and Mike and Michelle Solano. Beginning with these seven youth leaders, the Cathedral parish is preparing to develop core teams to lead our middle school and high school youth programs. Look for more information over the summer as Life Teen and The Edge plan to launch this fall!

If you are interested in beginning part of the youth core teams, please contact Laura Hawk, 342-0507 or laura@cathedralolph.org.

Our Parish Finance Council meets regularly to carefully and thoroughly review our monthly Income and Expense Statements; review our Balance Sheet; establish and review the annual budget; and oversee the good financial order of our parish family. Additionally, our parish financial reports are submitted to the Diocesan Finance Office for monthly review. Our parish financial reports are published in the Bulletin on a quarterly basis and these reports are available to our parishioners upon request. Last month, an independent audit was performed by a Certified Public Accountant to assess our compliance with Diocesan policies and standard business practices.
