DECEMBER 22, 2019-FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

LET THE LORD ENTER; HE IS KING OF GLORY!

On this Fourth Sunday of Advent, the Psalmist cries out to us: "Let the Lord enter!" Jesus indeed is coming—the Lord, the King of Glory—is coming, but He does not force His way into our lives. Jesus has come (born in Bethlehem); Jesus will come again (at the end of time); Jesus comes today in Word and Sacrament. In each case, Jesus invites us to receive Him. He does not cajole us, coerce us, or pressure us.

Listen to what Jesus tells us: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, [then] I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me." (Revelation 3:20). Jesus stands at the door of our hearts, knocking, seeking to enter. Only we have the power to open our hearts and to let Him enter. We have the free will to welcome our Lord in faith and allow Him to bring His presence and His saving grace into our lives.

Mary and Joseph received a "knock" from God. Both were asked if they would cooperate with God's will. They were invited to be part of God's saving plan by receiving-by welcoming-Jesus into their lives. Mary and Joseph said "Yes." Their "Yes" changed their lives and the history of the world.

Now, Jesus stands at the door of your heart. What will your answer be? Your answer will change your life and the history of the world!

"Both our children are involved in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd this year. Oftentimes when they are finished with their time in the atrium, they are energized and eager to share about their work and their time with God. We have found that when we are at Mass they are more observant as to what's happening up on the altar. And at random times they share stories they've heard from their time in the atrium and are making connections between God and the world around them. Amazing!" by Dori O'Connor
