JANUARY 19, 2020-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

St John the Baptist points to Jesus, as He walks along the Jordan River, and exclaims: "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." John identifies Jesus as the "Lamb of God."

The sacrifice of lambs played a very important role in the Jewish religious life and sacrificial system. When John the Baptist referred to Jesus as the "Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29), the Jews who heard him might have immediately thought of any one of several important sacrifices. With the time of the Passover feast being very near, the first thought might be the sacrifice of the Passover lamb.

The Passover feast was one of the main Jewish holidays and a celebration in remembrance of God's deliverance of the Israelites from bondage in Egypt. In fact, the slaying of the Passover lamb and the applying of the blood to doorposts of the houses (Exodus 12:11-13) is a beautiful foreshadowing of Christ's atoning work on the cross. Jesus passion and death — His sacrifice — take place over the Passover celebration.

Another important sacrifice involving lambs was the daily sacrifice at the temple in Jerusalem. Every morning and evening, a lamb was sacrificed in the temple for the sins of the people (Exodus 29:38-42). These daily sacrifices, like all others, pointed people towards the perfect sacrifice of Christ on the cross. In fact, the time of Jesus' death on the cross corresponds to the time the evening sacrifice was being made in the temple.

The Jews at that time would have been familiar with the Old Testament prophets Jeremiah and Isaiah, who foretold the coming of One who would be brought "like a lamb led to the slaughter" (Jeremiah 11:19; Isaiah 53:7) and whose sufferings and sacrifice would provide redemption for Israel. Of course, that person was Jesus Christ, "the Lamb of God."

Jesus has become the perfect sacrifice for our atonement with God: for our communion with God. Jesus' sacrifice, in which we participate at every Mass, is our salvation and our union — a Holy Communion — with God!

At Mass, when the priest — just prior to Holy Communion — elevates the Body and Blood of Christ, he uses these very words of John the Baptist: "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." We are truly blessed to be called to share in the supper of the Lamb, the supper of our Lord Jesus Christ!

I am a product of a Catholic education, an employee with the Rapid City Catholic School System and a parent of a current STM MS student. I had a wonderful experience attending St. Martin's Academy and want a similar experience for my daughter. I see the person she is becoming, in part due to the level of education she receives and the continued development of her faith. I also see commitment and dedication from the RCCSS administration and teachers. Students are the top priority, and I want my daughter to be in that type of environment.
