PALM SUNDAY

As he rode along,
 the people were
 spreading their
 cloaks on the road;
 the whole
 multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud
 with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen.
 — Lk 19:36, 37b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

APRIL 14, 2019

"Today's celebration can be said to be bittersweet. It is joyful and sorrowful at the same time. We celebrate the Lord's entrance into Jerusalem to the cries of his disciples who acclaim him as king. Yet we also solemnly proclaim the Gospel account of his Passion. In this poignant contrast, our hearts experience in some small measure what Jesus himself must have felt in his own heart that day, as he rejoiced with his friends and wept over Jerusalem.

"The Gospel we heard before the procession (cf. Mt 21:1-11) describes Jesus as he comes down from the Mount of Olives on the back of a colt that had never been ridden. It recounts the enthusiasm of the disciples who acclaim the Master with cries of joy, and we can picture in our minds the excitement of the children and young people of the city who joined in the excitement. Jesus himself sees in this joyful welcome an inexorable force willed by God. To the scandalized Pharisees he responds: 'I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would shout out' (Lk 19:40).

"Yet Jesus who, in fulfillment of the Scriptures, enters the holy city in this way is no misguided purveyor of illusions, no new age prophet, no imposter. Rather, he is clearly a Messiah who comes in the guise of a servant, the servant of God and of man, and goes to his passion. He is the great 'patient' who suffers all the pain of humanity.

"He had spoken clearly of this to his disciples: 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me' (Mt 16:24). Jesus never promised honor and success. The Gospels make this clear. He had always warned his friends that this was to be his path, and that the final victory would be achieved through the passion and the cross. All this holds true for us too. Let us ask for the grace to follow Jesus faithfully, not in words but in deeds. Let us also ask for the patience to carry our own cross, not to refuse it or set it aside, but rather, in looking to him, to take it up and to carry it daily" (Pope Francis, Passion Sunday, 2017).

The Pontifical Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

Dear Parishioners,

The STM Sophomore Class extends their heartfelt gratitude for your generous donations to the 2019 Packing Hope Fundraising Campaign. The parishes in the Black Hills area donated close to $6,000.00 to this cause, which was enough to provide 37,500 meals to those suffering from hunger and malnutrition! The RCCSS reached their goal this year and packed 128,952 meals on March 27th! Thank you so much for your annual dedication to this project, and especially for your prayers for an end to world hunger. May God bless you abundantly for your generosity.
