July 1, 2018—Thirteenth Sunday Ordinary Time

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Cathedral was dedicated on May 7, 1963. Our beautiful church, hall, and rectory were designed and built prior to the completion of the Second Vatican Council which came to a close on December 8, 1965.

Parish life prior to the Second Vatican Council was something different than parish life today. Several priests were able to oversee the catechetical, spiritual, and sacramental needs of the parish family. Few staff members were necessary and the rectory was primarily used as a residence for our priests. Today, our community expectations in the areas of faith formation, youth ministry, outreach, homebound and hospital ministry, and parish administration have multiplied. We have both greater numbers of parishioners and greater demands for parish services for our children, families, and others.

As envisioned by the Second Vatican Council, we see a greater involvement of the laity in the life of the parish. The Church is calling for laity to be active both within the parish walls and beyond as intentional and missionary disciples of Jesus Christ. We have witnessed, in these 55 years since the dedication of the Cathedral, a dramatic increase in the number of ministries, councils, committees, and apostolates which are undertaken by the laity.

Over the years, our parish buildings have been used in creative ways to accommodate our new ministries and functions: used in ways never originally intended. During times of faith formation, we are forced to use the lower sacristy, the back of the church, and the rectory living room and dining room for classrooms. There were even times, over the years, when we used the choir loft as a classroom! To accommodate a growing parish support staff, we have encroached upon the priests' residence. Additionally, areas in the basement of the rectory — originally designed for storage — have become offices for our staff members and for meeting rooms.

Our parish hall — basement — has served us well. We have many good memories of the events, receptions, and celebrations down there. Yet, as nice as it is, a basement is not easily accessible for many, readily visible, and particularly inviting.

Today, as a community of faith, we are looking to the future of our parish life. How can we accommodate all of our lively and engaging ministries? How can we invite parishioners and newcomers more effectively and warmly into our parish family? How can we provide for the many ministries, services, and support staff that our parish family expects and enjoys?

Our parish family — for several generations — has been developing new pastoral practices for this new era in the history of the Church. Now, we have come to the time when we need the facilities to accomplish the ministry and build the communal life that we have developed... and will continue to develop into the future! Come Holy Spirit!

Stewardship Committee gets New Chairman

The Stewardship Committee has been in the capable hands of Jean Grode for the past year. After shepherding the our parish stewardship efforts through a period of growth and maturity, Jean will be stepping down. The Committee members elected Corrie Stephens to succeed her as the Committee Chairman. Corrie has been involved in parish activities for several years and will provide both continuity and creativity to this important committee.

In addition to Jean, Veronica Kusser (also a past chairman) and Mary Lunders are also completing their terms of service. Three new members will begin a three year appointment to the Stewardship Committee on July 1st: Bridget Trask, Julie Carreiro, and Susan Oleson.

The Parish Stewardship Committee seeks to promote Stewardship within our parish in six fundamental areas: Stewardship of Prayer, Stewardship of Vocations, Stewardship of Ministry, Stewardship of Treasure, Stewardship of Faith, and Stewardship of the Earth. As a parish family, we have begun to introduce these areas over a three year period. Last year we focused upon Stewardship of Prayer (October) and Stewardship of Vocations (April). This coming year, we are looking to turn our attention to Stewardship of Ministry and Stewardship of Faith.

We seek to live stewardship — a disciple's way of life.

For more information on our parish stewardship initiatives, please contact our Parish Coordinator for Stewardship Activities, Kris Cascarelli, at 342-0507 or

LIFE TEEN
 Leading Teens Closer to Christ

Cathedral to launch Life Teen & The Edge

Over 2,000 youth leaders from across the United States gathered in Scottsdale, Arizona from June 9-12, 2018 for the annual Catholic Youth Ministry Training Convention. The convention is organized by Life Teen. As a Eucharist-centered movement within the Roman Catholic Church, Life Teen leads teenagers and their families into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. With the Blessed Virgin Mary as an intercessor and guide, Life Teen seeks to unleash the fullness of the Sacramental power present within the young Church.

Laura Hawk — Cathedral Director of Youth Ministry — participated in the annual conference along with Amy Dyke — Cathedral Director of Evangelization — Craig Dyke, Kris and Rachél Cascarelli, and Mike and Michelle Solano. Beginning with these seven youth leaders, the Cathedral parish is preparing to develop core teams to lead our middle school and high school youth programs. Look for more information over the summer as Life Teen and The Edge plan to launch this fall!

If you are interested in beginning part of the youth core teams, please contact Laura Hawk, 342-0507 or laura@cathedralolph.org.

Parish Budget 2018-2019

This year's budget estimates that we will have $1,662,451 in projected income from our financial stewardship and other donations.
